Notes & Comments

As far as I know, I am the second youngest grandchild of Marion Yandell Hall (1873 – 1953) and Pruella "Ella" Patience Blake (1876 – 1954). This somewhat unique position in the family makes compiling its history and genealogy a tad difficult. By the time I started this work, all the children of Marion and Ella were deceased, and living cousins were far removed. I have mostly relied on public documents, old photographs, and scant personal recollections. The lesson here is to start such work when you are young and senior generations are still around.

Marion and Ella had ten children; eight survived to adulthood. From those children have come many descendants through successive generations. For several reasons no attempt is made here to document anyone younger than those ten Hall children. I will leave that work to others.

I have concentrated efforts on identifying the direct ancestors of Marion and Ella. Siblings of those ancestors have not been ignored, but their children are generally excluded here.

Marion and Ella spent most of their lives in Saline County, Illinois. Short periods were spent in Dunklin County, Missouri, and in Jackson County, Illinois. Most residences in Saline were in Brushy Township or Galatia. Marion's primary occupation was as a blacksmith at saw mills and coal mines. No records show that Ella was employed outside the home.

The political history of Saline County is of some importance. What we now recognize as Saline was originally part of Gallatin County. The counties separated, and Saline became a unique entity in 1847. Many family events happened before the separation. Even though some documents reference Gallatin, those events probably took place in what is now Saline.

The oldest evidence of Hall ancestors in Saline County is the 1830 census. Johnathan (sic) Hall and Zachara (sic) Hall are listed on adjacent lines of the record for Equality Township. Marion's grandfather was Zachariah T Hall (1811 – 1848), and his great-grandfather was Jonathan Hall (1787 – 1864). Census takers were notorious for misspelling names. Other recorded data implies that these two named men were indeed Jonathan and Zachariah.

A sure record of their residence in Saline is from 1834. In that year Zachariah bought 40 acres from the United States government. Zachariah came to the area with his wife Sarah Dement (1808 – 1880). They may have been persuaded to move here by Sarah's sister Serena. There is more about Serena in a following paragraph.

In 1838 Jonathan Hall bought 360 acres from the United States government. At the same time Zachariah purchased a second parcel of 40 acres, and Zachariah's brother Willis (1812 – 1864) bought 40 acres. In 1840 Zachariah's wife Sarah bought another 40 acres adjacent to his. Another of Zachariah's brothers, Francis M Hall (1831 – 1901), bought 80 acres in 1855. Other family members may also have owned acreage in the area.

Most of these properties are close to each other northwest of Eldorado, but Jonathan's purchase of 80 acres in 1854 was in what is now Galatia. Maps of these properties are included later.

Jonathan, with his wife Sarah Huckabee (1792 – 1864), Zachariah and Sarah, Willis, and other family members migrated through Tennessee from Wake County, North Carolina, to settle in Saline County. Zachariah had married Sarah Dement while in Rutherford County, Tennessee, in 1825.

Jonathan and Sarah had a total of eleven children who lived to adulthood. Most of them spent their adult lives in either Gallatin, Hamilton, or Saline County.

Willis Hall married Sarah's sister Serena Dement (1813 – 1888) in 1838 in Gallatin County. Serena came to the area with her first husband, Samuel Murray, whom she divorced in 1832. After Willis's death Serena married Joseph Read.

The family had ties to the Primitive Baptist Church. Serena, Willis, Jonathan, and James Monroe Hall (1840 – 1920), Zachariah's son, are all buried in the Wolf Creek Cemetery, adjacent to the Wolf Creek Primitive Baptist Church in Eldorado. Zachariah, Sarah his wife, and Sarah his mother-in-law may also be buried here in unmarked graves. Sarah Dement's grandparents, Charles Gilbert Dement Sr (1740 – 1822) and Selah Thomas (1740 – 1799), are buried in Beaver Dam Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery near Toney, Alabama. See a later section listing burial locations.

Of note is Zachariah Hall's apparent age when he and Sarah were married. Most online evidence points to his parent's marriage in 1810, with his birth the following year. If true, he was no more than fourteen and Sarah as old as eighteen when they were married. In the census of 1840 he claims to be between 30 and 40 years old, making his birth year before 1811.

Another item to take note of is that Jonathan, his wife Sarah, and their son Willis all died in 1864. Did a catastrophe of some kind take all three lives? We may never know, but such a coincidence is worthy of continued investigation.

The first Blake known to be in Saline County was William Benjamin Blake (1821 – 1859), Ella's grandfather. He and his wife, Martha June Sleymaker (1821 – 1888), are first recorded there in the census of 1850. William and Martha also moved to Illinois from North Carolina. In 1854 William purchased land in Brushy Township, northeast of Carrier Mills, from the US government. See the map of his holdings later in this document.

More information about Martha's ancestry is available than William's. Online information shows her great-grandfather, James H Slemaker (1716 – 1752), migrated to Baltimore, Maryland, from Liverpool, England. There he married Elizabeth Giles (1726 – 1788) in 1745. The last name's spelling was apparently changed by Martha's father, James Sleymaker (1780 – 1840).

Ella's mother, Cynthia Louise Puckett (1851 – 1879), died when Ella was about three years old and an only child. The cause of Cynthia's death and the exact location of her burial are unknown. We may suppose she is buried in the Blake Family Cemetery near Harco. In 1881 Ella's widowed father, William Henry Blake (1853 – 1944), married Mary Ellen Farmer (1858 – 1940). They had another five children.

Ella's grandfather, William Britton Puckett (1813 – 1893), moved to Illinois from Knox County, Tennessee, with his wife Elizabeth. He is first recorded in Saline County in 1856 when he acquired 160 acres northwest of Harrisburg from the US government. His property is also shown on one of the following maps.

Evidence is contradictory about the identity of William's wife. Other researchers have named her as Elizabeth Walters. The list of Puckett family members (see Puckett Family in Appendix) identify her as Elizabeth Davis. There are no records of her genealogy to support either position. She is named only as Elizabeth Puckett in census records, having been born about 1818 in Tennessee. Since someone with close ties to the Puckett family has said her surname was Davis, that is the name used here. This discrepancy deserves continued research, but it will be difficult.

At least one ancestor served during the American Civil War. James Monroe Hall, Marion's father, joined the 3rd Illinois Cavalry Regiment, Company E, on August 14, 1861, and served until September 5, 1864. He is specifically named on page 556 of Report of the Adjutant General of the State of Illinois, Volume VII, published in 1900. His unit mustered in at Camp Butler in Sangamon County, then moved to southwest Missouri and Arkansas. They eventually participated in the campaign that led to the siege and capture of Vicksburg, Mississippi, in July 1863.

Several ancestors may have served during the Revolutionary War. Information about individuals during that period is sparse, but two are specifically mentioned in online documents. Isham Huckabee (1742 – 1835), Marion's 4g-grandfather, soldiered as a private and a sergeant in 1782 under Colonel Hugh Giles. This information comes from History of the Old Cheraws by Alexander Gregg, first published in 1867. This book is a general description of places, events, and people in the Peedee Valley between Georgetown, South Carolina, and the North Carolina boundary.

More than one member of the Dement family probably served during the Revolution. See Charles Dement, Our Tennessee Pioneer and Descendant of James Thomas in the Appendix.

Evidence shows John Slemaker, Ella'a 2g-grandfather, served during the Revolution. A Sons of the American Revolution membership application from 1961 by Thomas Proctor Hughes identifies him as Captain John Slemeker (Mariner). At some point he was taken as a prisoner by the British. A copy of the application is included later.

William Britton Puckett served in the Tennessee Mounted Militia for one year, starting July 25, 1836. His name is listed on page 189 of The History of Hamilton County and Chattanooga, Tennessee, Volume I, by Zella Armstrong, published in 1931. He may have served during the Indian Wars in the southeast, but the militia's role is unclear.

Of particular note is The Life of Verbal Hall Browning found in the appendix. This memoir gives special insight into the early married life of Marion and Ella, as well as the adult life of Verbal Hall Browning.

Women mentioned herein are usually identified by their birth surname, with their married name following in parentheses. There are some instances of a female ancestor being identified with her husband's family name because hers is unknown.

An example is Polly Hogan (1770 – ?), wife of Shadrack Hogan (1760 – 1825). Newspaper obituaries and census records are usually referenced by the married name. In such cases the family name is shown in parentheses. Every attempt is made to recognize both the birth name and the married name.

Women are difficult to trace in the historical record. As with William Puckett's wife Elizabeth: was her last name Davis, or was it Walters? Prior to 1850 only the head of household is recorded in the census, and that is usually a man. Marriage records usually give birth surnames, but they are rare before the late nineteenth century.

This family history begins with the birth of the aforementioned James Slemeker in 1716 and ends with the death of Marion's and Ella's youngest child, Bonnie Sibyl Hall (Bennett) in 2013. See the chronology of events.

Throughout this document the names of Marion's and Ella's direct ancestors and descendants are shown with bold typeface. Anyone not in direct lineage, such as siblings of direct ancestors and spouses of children, are shown with plain typeface.

The oldest census record included here is from 1820 and the latest from 1950. The 1960 census will not be made available until 2032, seven years from now. Sadly, no information from the 1890 census is available to help us. A fire in 1921, and subsequent water damage, took almost the entire set of records. I believe much happened with the family between 1880 and 1900.

No claim is made that what you find here is error free. Sometimes I have made conclusions and picked alternatives using what I thought was the best or most reasonable evidence. Many sources publish multi-generational data without evidence. That information is mostly excluded here. Anyone included without documentation (census record, birth certificate, death certificate, land record, grave site reference, etc) should be viewed critically. Future research for many individuals is justified.

I am also sure you can find typographic and transcription errors. If I still live when you find any error, I would enjoy seeing your corrections.

Investigating family history and researching genealogy are never complete. I will leave it to others to add add and correct as they see fit.

My best wishes to anyone who uses this information. I hope you find it helpful, and it makes your research easier. If we are related through Marion and Ella, I wish you a happy and productive life.

THOMAS & MOLLIE GRUBBS SHIRLEY MEMORIAL
BARREN COUNTY, KENTUCKY

Shirley Memorial

About 30 descendents from six different states, gathered here recently to attend the dedication of this memorial marker to their ancestors, Thomas and Mollie Grubbs Shirley. The marker was erected on land that is part of the original tract of several hundred acres homesteaded by the Shirleys in 1798, and which is still in the Shirley family name today. The marker rests near the spot where the Shirley house once stood. On the side not shown in the photo, the words Granny's Spring are inscribed, indicating the spring that once furnished abundant water for the family. It is still running today although the water is no longer being used.

According to family history, Thomas and Mollie Shirley were married May 7, 1770, and soon after their marriage it is recorded that they joined the Broad Run Baptist Church. They left Virginia in 1784 for Abbieville, South Carolina. While living there they joined the Turkey Creek Baptist Church. In 1792 the couple, along with several family members and cousins left South Carolina and came to the new state of Kentucky looking up land. It is recorded that in 1798 Thomas and Mollie were in Barren County, Kentucky, in a section which is now Metcalfe, in the Big Meadow vicinity. Apparently the Shirleys homesteaded several hundred acres of land, promising to stay as much as three years to gain title to it. Instead they spent the rest of their lives there. The house which the two built on this land stood until 1885, when it was destroyed by fire. Almost 90 years!

Thomas and Mollie Shirley were the parents of nine children; Richard, Elizabeth, William, Nancy, Thomas Jr., Lettice, Sarah, Elijah and Fanny Shirley.

Always conscious of the importance of a place of worship, Thomas and Mollie Shirley helped organize Dripping Springs Baptist Church near Wisdom, Kentucky.

LAND RECORDS

Land Patents & Farming
The Halls, Blakes, & Pucketts Come to Saline County

After the American Revolution the United States Government came into possession of a large area west of the original thirteen colonies. Most of this land is in what are now the states of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, and Illinois. The land was made available for sale by the Federal Government to individuals.

The Land Ordinance of 1785, The Northwest Ordinance of 1787, and other laws created a system for dividing the land and transferring it to private ownership. Land in the territories was divided into thirty six square mile Congressional Townships. Each Township was further divided into one square mile sections. These sections were easily subdivided into smaller parcels of 160 acres and 40 acres. Townships and sections were numbered, and the locations of parcels were easily mapped and described. Parcels were rectangular, and the need for expensive land surveys was nearly eliminated.

Between 1834 and 1856 the Hall, Puckett, and Blake families took advantage of the system. Jonathan Hall, Zachariah Hall, Sarah Dement Hall, Francis Hall, William Blake, and William Puckett bought hundreds of acres. They probably paid no more than $2.50 per acre, about $100 per acre at 2025 prices. The land was cheap but undeveloped and without amenities. While there may have been occasional markets near the current locations for Harrisburg, Eldorado, and Raleigh, most goods were probably bought and sold in Shawneetown, 25 miles away. It would be many years before public roads and railroads were common.

Zachariah T and Sarah Hall purchased their first forty acres in August 1834. They were probably living near Equality at the time. We know little about their day to day life, but we can speculate. They traveled overland or on rough trails to their new home. They brought with them their three children, William T (age 7), John Franklin (age 6), and Mary Emily (newborn). Willis, Zachariah's brother, and Jonathan, their father, may have also come along to help with the homestead.

Since it was late in the season, they brought supplies to last through winter and spring: mostly potatoes, flour, cornmeal, and smoked meats. They had at least one cow to provide milk. A garden was quickly planted. Turnips and other root crops would ripen before the first freezing weather and provide sustenance through the winter. They had hogs, and wild game was plentiful.

On arrival, their first job was to provide shelter. Their property was timbered, so they built either a lean-to or rough cabin. If indeed Jonathan and Willis were present, this task was greatly eased. Cutting and hauling wood for shelter and fuel was a daily chore. Until they could dig a well, water was carried from nearby creeks.

In spring plowing began. Since the land had never been farmed, the soil was thick and heavy. Prairie grass roots extended well below the depth of the plow, and tree roots were a common obstruction. Zachariah's plow was made of cast iron. Its moldboard required regular cleaning, and he plowed less than an acre a day. In 1835, his first full season, he planted about fifteen acres, mostly corn for the livestock. He and Sarah also planted a large garden for potatoes and other vegetables.

The work was exhausting, but the results were encouraging. Four years later Zachariah bought another 40 acres, and Sarah bought 40 acres two years after that. In all, Jonathan, Zachariah, Sarah, Willis, and Francis Hall purchased 520 acres of land in this area. In 1854 and 1855 Jonathan bought another 120 acres; 80 of those acres are in the area that eventually became Galatia.

The Halls must have affected life in this area. Someone thought it was appropriate to name a road after them. Hall Loop runs through the first land bought by Zachariah and Sarah and is so named on current maps.

William Benjamin Blake, Ella's paternal grandfather, and William Britton Puckett, her maternal grandfather, moved into Saline County in the 1850s. They also took advantage of available government land. They each bought 160 acres in the Brushy area. Farming technology was improved in 1837 when John Deere invented the polished steel plow. This self cleaning plow considerably reduced the required labor.

Zachariah died in 1848. He was not yet fifty years old. We don't know the cause of his death. He may have just been worn out by the labor. The 1850 census says that Sarah is alive and living with seven of her children. Marion's father James, age 10, is included.

None of these properties came down to Marion or Ella Hall. Research in the Saline County Courthouse would name the current owners. Some of it may be owned by other branches of the family.

These are the legal descriptions of the land purchased by the Blakes, Halls, and Pucketts. Maps on the following pages show these properties.

Picture taken in July 1947 when Marion and Ella celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. According the memoir of Verbal Hall Browning (see appendix), the family gathered in the yard of Marion's and Ella's home in Galatia. I can identify some of the people here.

- Pruella "Ella" Patience Blake Hall is the second woman seated in the front row. Marion Yandell Hall is the next one seated to the right.
- The woman behind Marion in the print dress is Verbal Hall Browning.
- The woman to the right of Verbal is Bonnie Hall Bennett. She is holding her son Michael.
- The two women to the right of Bonnie are Bertha Peratt Hall, Wilburn Hall's wife, and Zona Blair Hall, widow of Waldo Hall.
- The seated boy on the right is Ronald Bradley, son of Amy Hall Bradley, and the boy standing next to him is Leon Russell, son of Geneva Hall Russell.
- The woman next to Leon is Geneva Hall Russell. She is holding her daughter Lyn.
- The man left of Geneva is William "Shorty" Oliver. In front of him is his wife, Grace Bradley Oliver, daughter of Amy Hall Bradley.
- Left of William is Amy Hall Bradley.
- The woman standing two rows behind Ella Hall (face turned slightly to her right) is Loueva Hall Wooden.
- The boy standing to the far left is Medford Dennis Bennett, son of Bonnie Hall Bennett.
- Wayne Hall and Wilburn Hall are probably standing in the rear to the left with obscured faces.

APPENDIX

The following account was written by Barbara Browning Hemmele (1932 – 2018). Barbara was the second youngest child of Verbal Florene Hall Browning and Bennie Arthur Browning. Her original text was produced on a typewriter. I have transcribed her work below. Only minor changes have been made to her text, such as changes to punctuation and spelling to improve readability. My comments are added in brackets. Nothing written by Barbara has been removed or substantially altered.

Verbal Browning was my aunt and the oldest child of Marion Hall and Ella Blake. I remember visiting her many times as a child. She was always welcoming, kind, and gracious. I last saw Aunt Verbal in March 1997, when she was 97. At that time her mind was sharp, and she was loaded with family history. I wish I had paid better attention to what she said.

This short memoir provides a fascinating look into the family's history during the early 20th century. Thank you, Barbara.

"The Life of Verbal Hall Browning"

By Daughter: Barbara Browning Hemmele

On October 23, 1994, as I sat with Mom at the Morton Health Care Nursing Home reminiscing about the past, I decided to write down the facts that she told me for all of her descendants to read. For a person 96 years old she is in good health and has a great memory.

On July 28, 1897, in Hamilton County in Southern Illinois, Marion Yandell Hall and Pruella Patience Blake were married. [County records show that they were married in Raleigh, Saline County, Illinois.]

May 19, 1898, Verbal Florene Hall was born in Raleigh, Illinois, to Marion and Ella Hall. Grandpa Hall was a blacksmith by trade as well as working in the sawmills. They moved around quite often to wherever he could find work.

Mom was nineteen months old when Amy Louise was born on December 31, 1899.

Great-Grandpa Henry Blake gave Grandma Hall an acre of land and enough lumber to build a two room house outside of Raleigh, Illinois. They built the house and lived in it for about a year before moving into Raleigh. Grandpa Hall's parents, Jim and Sara [Sarah Paradine Dickey] Hall bought the House. They gave them a cow and calf for it.

On April 22, 1903, in a double log house in Raleigh, Waldo Hall was born. A few months later they moved to Equality, Illinois, on the Saline River where Grandpa went to work at the sawmill. They built a two room house from rough lumber and stayed there for a year before moving into Equality. On June 30, 1906, Wilburn Hall was born. They then moved to Eldorado, Illinois, for a couple of years and back to a log house in Equality, also lived in a place called Monday Hill. It was located between two hills. Sometimes Mom went to school whenever they were close by one or she wasn't needed at home to help with the other children. She only went part of the time to the fifth grade.

When Mom was ten years old they moved to Eagle Creek. She went to a school called "Jones School," a one room schoolhouse. Grandpa worked for the grist mill and sawmill. One day when Grandma needed flour to fix supper, Mom, at ten years old, had to walk at least a mile each way to the store. They lived between two hills, and she had to walk a log over the creek to the other side and carry a 25 pound sack of flour. They carried their water from a spring.

On August 18, 1908, Grandma Hall gave birth to twin boys, Wayne and Wendell Hall. Wendell died at birth and is buried at Eagle Creek Cemetery. [There are multiple cemeteries near the Eagle Creek community, but none are identified by this name.] Soon after Great-Grandma Sara and Great-Grandpa Jim Hall came to live with them because Sara Hall was dying from cancer. She died several months later and is buried at Wolf Creek Cemetery. Great-Grandpa Hall had fought in the Civil War. [I visited their graves on Memorial Day 2025. They are marked with a single granite stone with their names and pertinent dates. There is also a military style marker of either limestone or marble with his name and service record on it. Photos of the markers can be found on the Find A Grave website. The Wolf Creek Cemetery is very well maintained. See the short history of the cemetery elsewhere in this appendix.]

April 10, 1910, Grandpa Hall got a job in a sawmill in Missouri. They took a train to St Francis, Arkansas. On June 3, 1910, Ruth Hall was born. They lived near swampland in a log cabin. They didn't have much to eat. They had either bread and potatoes or bread and beans. They almost starved to death. Mom picked cotton in the fields. On February 8, 1911, they took a train back to Illinois. Ruth wasn't very healthy, and on August 5, 1911, she died. She is buried in the Masonic Cemetery in Raleigh, Illinois. [This period was during the Panic of 1910-1911.]

Great-Grandpa Blake sold the oil and coal rights on his land in Raleigh.

Grandma and Grandpa had very little furniture, some cane bottom chairs and a stand table. They hung their clothes on the wall.

Grandma Hall wanted to go to the World's Fair in Chicago with her father, Great-Grandpa Blake and his family, but Grandpa Hall didn't want her to go and promised to get her a new sewing if she stayed home. She got the sewing machine.

Grandpa Hall got a job in Equality with the coal mines. They lived in a company house there. Later they moved back to Raleigh, where on September 27, 1912, Mary Geneva Hall was born. They then moved to Makanda, Illinois. It was a two room log house with a side room back in the field.

On Mom's fifteenth birthday she met Ben Browning, who some three years later would be her husband.

For as long as Mom can remember they never had a Christmas tree. Although they did hang up their stockings and would get a toy, and orange or apple and some candy. Mom got her last doll at age ten.

To make money Mom would work in homes doing washing, cooking and housework for other people. She also worked in the fields picking blackberries, cutting asparagus, digging potatoes and picking peas for twenty five cents a day. She also worked in a box factory making boxes for strawberries for twenty five cents a day. Mom saved enough money to buy a new winter coat. Mom and Aunt Amy took a train from Makanda to Carbondale and bought the coat for $4.95. They watched a Halloween parade in Carbondale, then took the train back to Makanda.

Mom first met Dad's brother, Charlie Browning, as he was working on a farm for some neighbors. They, along with Aunt Amy and another lady named Willie Fisher, would walk to church together. It was a Methodist Church.

Bennie Arthur Browning was born in Eddyville, Illinois, on October 18, 1894, to David L Browning and Ida May Hardy Browning. Dad was doing farm work for Evan and Bill Hardy's aunt and uncle when he met Mom. Mom met Dad when she was fifteen, but Grandpa Hall wouldn't let them date until she was 16.

Loueva Hall was born July 19, 1914.

May 21, 1916, in the home of her parents, Mom and Dad were married by Justice of the Peace, Mr Morris, on a Sunday afternoon at 3:30 PM. Grandma Hall made Mom's dress. It was white with lace on the sleeves. Dad wore a brown suit. They lived with Grandma and Grandpa for about three weeks until the furniture they had ordered out of a catalog arrived. After buying springs, mattress, cabinet, two rocking chairs, table and two chairs for about $30.00. Also included in the furniture was a pair of sheets, pillow cases and comforter. They had about fifteen dollars to start married life on. She also had a dresser Grandma had given to her years before. Mom and Dad both had a plate, 2 forks, 2 spoons, 2 knives and a big spoon and 2 tin cups.

When they finally moved to themselves, it was into a one room log house with a fireplace in one end. Dad went to to the grocery store for necessities, such as flour, salt, sugar and a galvanized bucket. Before winter they moved into a two room house.

Bonnie Sybil Hall was born on October 5, 1916 in Makanda. Around May 1917 Dad and Mom moved to Union County. Dad worked on a farm 6 AM – 6 PM. He was paid $1.75 a day. Mom went back home to her parents before her first baby was due. On May 6, 1917, Valerie was born. She died at birth and is buried in Makanda.

That same year Dad went to Anna, Illinois, to register for the service. It was during World War 1.

Dad and Mom moved to Raleigh, Illinois, in a small house on the property of Great-Grandpa Blake. For a time Dad worked in Harrisburg at the ice house and for an electric light company and then for Great-Grandpa Blake.

May 21, 1918, Charles Byford was born and just twelve hours later Dad had to leave for the service. He was in the infantry and trained in Laredo and Waco, Texas. He did guard duty between Brownsville and the Mexican border. He was discharged March 31, 1919.

While Dad was in the army in Texas Mom and Byford went to live with her parents. She had an allotment on $30.00 per month for herself and $10.00 a month for Byford. Dad received about $5.00 per month to live on. Mom saved over $200.00 while Dad was in the army.

On March 31, 1919, after ten months in the army, Dad was discharged and came home.

April 1, 1919, Mom, Dad and Byford moved to Raleigh. Dad farmed. April 23, 1920, Dillard Lee was born. In November they moved to Saline Ford where Dad worked for the railroad. A short time later Dad went to Harco to unload props for the coal mines.

They moved into a two room house. When Dad worked in the bailer [boiler] room he made $7.25 a day, but if he worked in the temple [tipple], where they separated the coal, he only made $6.86 a day. Dad worked at the mines from March 1921 to 1933 when they had mine union problems.

Dad and Mom bought a house in Harco for $300.00, then sold it for $500.00. They then bought a house and twenty acres of land from Mr Stone in Harco for $2,500.00. They had a garden, raised chickens, hogs and had a cow.

Mr & Mrs Shade were good neighbors, and later Mr & Mrs Knight bought the Shade house, and they became long time friends, neighbors.

On June 10, 1922, Edra June was born, then on December 21, 1923, Vada Jean was born. Bennie was born on June 3, 1926, Marion David was born May 30, 1929, Revena Idel was born August 19, 1930, Barbara Louise on May 14, 1932, and on December 31, 1933, Betty Sue was the last child born to Mom and Dad.

Dad worked in the coal mines in Harco when there were union problems. Dad belonged to the Progressive Mine Union; John L Lewis was trying to break the union. Dad stayed out of work. Some of his friends, Clyde Williams was shot and killed, Cap Williams crossed the line and worked, while Cecil Morris quit the mines. [In 1932 there was a nationwide strike by the United Mine Workers of America, the UMWA. The proposed contract was rejected by miners in Illinois and surrounding states. After they were forced to accept the contract, many miners split away and formed their own union, the Progressive Mine Workers of America. There followed several episodes of violence. The PMWA had as many as 18,000 members and continued to exist until 1999. For many years its headquarters was on North Main Street in Harrisburg.]

Dad's first car was a Model T Ford that cost $50.00. The second car he paid $300.00 for, had it for five years, and sold it for $10.00. He bought it in Eldorado. It was a black car.

Dad stayed home and farmed. He raised cows and sorghum and corn. His health wasn't very good. He had malaria and would often sit in the swing on the back porch, holding Betty while Mom did the washing. Sometimes Dad would spread a blanket on the ground and watch over the four younger children while Mom and the older children worked the fields.

In the fall of 1934 some neighbors came to help harvest the corn because Dad was sick and with all the mine problems it wasn't safe for him to work in the fields alone.

In December 1934 Mr Jeter and Mr Earl Scroggins tried to get help from the Veterans Administration because Dad was sick. They wouldn't help them, so they took Dad to Harrisburg to get on relief. In December 30, 1934, Dad was admitted to the Harrisburg Hospital. Surgery was scheduled for December 30. His appendix was as large as a clothespin. Mom stayed by his side, and on Wednesday at 3:00 PM on January 2, 1935, Dad died. Grandma Hall and Mom were with him.

They took his body back to the house for one day visitation. Every man that came to the house carried a gun for fear of some miners trying to get Dad after he died.

Dad's funeral was January 4, 1935, at the Raleigh Baptist Church, and he was buried in the Raleigh Masonic Cemetery. He had no flowers, just the American flag on his casket. Mom was now alone with nine children to raise, ages one to sixteen.

Dad had a Veterans Life Insurance policy in the amount of $600.00, but they had borrowed $300.00 on it, so just $300 plus $100.00 from the state. His funeral expenses were $248.00 from Dutch Courtney Funeral Home in Galatia, Illinois. In February 1935 a veteran's headstone was placed on his grave.

In less than a week after Dad died Mom was told she would lose the farm. Some neighbors came to buy farm machinery, such as a hayrack, riding plow, mower and harrow. She also sold a mule for $35.00, 3 cows for $35.00 and one cow for $15.00. The latter she used to buy Byford and Lee a jacket, pants, shirt and shoes. Also Mr Simmons bought 4 hogs for $80.00, plus some geese and heavy hens. Some of the coal miners that were Dad's friends had taken up a collection of $30.00 and gave it to Mom.

On March 31, 1935, Mom paid $525.00 for a three room house in the country. Bond School was ¼ mile away.

Grandma Ida Browning died on June 2, 1935. She was a little woman with brown eyes and black curly hair. She had a heart attack.

Byford graduated from 8th grade in 1935. He joined the CC Camps [Civilian Conservation Corps, CCC], and in 1936 Lee joined the CC Camps. Later Lee worked for Waldo and Lucille Abney doing farm work.

In 1936 Byford was married to Alice Bush. In 1936 June and Vada graduated from Bond School. Lee had decided not to finish grade school and spent most of the time working on the farm for the Abneys.

Bond School was one room with a principal and one teacher. Margaret Sloan Jones was our teacher. At Christmas time they would bring in a large tree and decorate it. There wasn't any electricity to have lights on the tree. They would have a Christmas program and each pupil would have a part to say. Each child would have a gift under the tree.

In 1936 June and Vada went to Carrier Mills to live and work in the homes of elderly people, taking care of them. Mom had very little to raise the five youngest children, so in the summer she planted a garden and canned vegetables for winter and also raised chickens. Mom would go to Harco every two weeks for food staples and a grocery order of $10.00 to $12.00. Sometimes she would get a clothing order. Naugles Store in Harco was about 5 miles away.

Although we lived in the country we had a small grocery across the road from us. Mr & Mrs Rice owned it. They were very nice and sometimes whenever Junior [Bennie, Jr] or Marion David did some work for them they would give them a sack of candy. They had a lot of penny candy. Down the road about ¼ mile we had such neighbors such as the Claridas, Otto and Stella Golliher and the Gouges. Sometimes friends and neighbors would get together for a pound party. Everyone would bring a pound of something and put it all together for a party.

The only way Mom had to go anywhere was to pay some neighbors to take her, so after 5 years in the country she decided to move to Galatia. She sold the house for $600.00-$650.00. She bought a house in Galatia for $350.00. We moved to Galatia on April 1, 1940. The house had four rooms but needed a lot of work done on it, such as a new porch, living room floor. We had a well outside the back door from which we got drinking water. Also we had an outdoor toilet, but we did have our first electric lights.

In August 1936 Delphia Browning Bond died. She was Dad's sister. She was married but had no children.

On September 7, 1939, Mom became a Grandmother for the first time. Robert Gordon Browning was born to Byford and Alice.

In September 1940 Lee joined the Air Force [probably US Army; US Air Force was formed in 1947; Lee was in Air Force later in life] and was sent to Tampa, Florida. In Galatia us four kids went to school. It was a grade and high school in the same building. There were only fifteen to twenty kids in each grade. Each day at 12:30 PM as we would be going back to school from lunch, in warm weather, we could always hear Lum and Abner on the radio.

Galatia was a town of about 1,000 people. There was a movie theater, Kroger store, gas station, Peters Restaurant and Griffins store. At Griffins store they had everything from ice cream to dresses to shoes and horse collars. There was no mail delivery, so everyone went to the post office to get their mail.

In such a small town there were three churches, Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian. We attended the Presbyterian Church. Mom would give each of us girls a penny for Sunday school.

Grandma and Grandpa Hall and most of Mom's brothers and sisters and their families lived in Galatia. In September, just before Labor Day, Uncle Wilburn Hall and his family from Elkhart, Illinois, would come down for a visit, and we would have a big reunion in the front yard of Grandpa and Grandma Hall's house.

We had some nice neighbors, Vern and Millie Crawford and son George. Mrs Crawford would invite one of us girls to go with her to the movies on Thursday night. They had a drawing every Thursday night for $10.00 at the movie. Earl and Nell Smith and daughter were neighbors. Across the street was the first and only black people we ever saw, Jane Walker and Bud Jackson, who was a midget. They were very nice and we would sit on their porch swing and talk to them. Howard and Lucille Malone and girls and Marie Boczkiewicz and Norma Jean. Revena would help Lucille do housework and baby sit.

Great-Grandpa Blake died in November 1944. Also Grandpa Browning was hit by a train in Carrier Mills in December 1940 and died. He was walking down the tracks and didn't hear the train whistle.

March 1941 Lee came home on leave and met Coy Wiggins, a teacher at Bond School. They were married on April 7, 1941.

On December 7, 1941, World War II started. June and Vada went to Pontiac, Michigan, to work in the defense plants. Junior worked for Phillip Lewis driving a truck and hauling coal. All five of us children would, at one time or the other, come down with the measles, chicken pox, mumps and scarlet fever. Poor mom, we would be quarantined in our homes for weeks, until everyone was well again. Mom was the only one to care for us and to wait on us. Of course, those times we didn't eat much.

Mom didn't have much money to feed and clothe us. She got a veterans pension for $166.00 a month and surplus food once a month. June and Vada would send money to buy food and clothes. Christmas for us kids wouldn't have been very much had it not been for June and Vada. They always made sure we had Christmas presents.

Each spring around Easter Mom always managed to get us three girls a new dress and white shoes for summer.

During the war there was a shortage of foods, such as sugar, coffee, flour and shoes, so everyone had ration stamps. Mom always had a garden. She planted lettuce, radishes, tomatoes and potatoes and flowers, such as zinnias and marigolds.

Aunt Amy Bradley, Mom's sister, ran the telephone switchboard in her home. We didn't have a telephone, but it was fun going to her house and listening in on people's conversations.

Vada joined the WACS [Women's Army Corps] in 1943. She was stationed in Shreveport, Louisiana. She really looked nice in her uniform.

Waldo Hall, Mom's brother, died in July 1943. He had lost a leg in a mine accident some years before.

Lee was sent overseas to India and other places. On September 18, 1944, Miriam Lee Browning was born. She was over a year old before Lee would see her.

Revena and Marion David graduated from eighth grade in May 1945. Galatia was a small town, and there wasn't any work, so Mom decided to move to Harrisburg, Illinois, which was about ten miles from Galatia. She sold our home to Uncle Vern and Millie Crawford for $800.00. Then she bought a house in Harrisburg for $2,100.00. The house was located at 319 south Vine Street. It was a five room house with a bathroom. It was the first time we had an indoor toilet and a tub to take a bath in. So on July 19, 1945, we moved to Harrisburg.

Revena started high school. Barbara was in 8th grade at Lincoln School. [On Barbara's typed document the name Lincoln is struck out, and a "?" is written.] Marion David joined the Navy in 1946. We had some very nice neighbors, Mrs Lela Newman, James and Minnie Rice and their three little girls. They lived across the street. We used to make money for school lunches and school clothes by babysitting. When the Rices moved away Arthur and Frances Holland and son Artie moved in.

On March 10, 1946, Diana Joyce was born. She and June lived with us for several years. Mom took care of Diana while June worked. On August 4, 1946, Edward Arthur Browning was born.

In September 1946 all nine of the children of Ben and Verbal Browning were all home at the same time for a family reunion. They were never all together at one time again.

By 1947 Byford and Alice had moved to Peoria to live. Vada had moved to California and married Fred Perrigo. Junior had moved to Peoria to work at Armor Packing Co. Lee had been working for the railroad in Benton, Illinois, but had been laid off, so he and Coy moved to Peoria, Illinois.

On July 1947 Grandpa and Grandma [Hall] celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. In the fifty years they had averaged moving 50 times. There was a picnic in their front yard in Galatia.

Marion David married Norma Jean in California, and on November 20, 1947, David Lee Browning was born. About a month later Gary Perrigo was born on December 26, 1947. Charles Byford Browning Jr was born on March 16, 1947.

August 1948 Mom sold the house in Harrisburg for $2,500.00 and bought a house in Peoria for $7,000.00 at 416 Vine Street. There were more opportunities for work in Peoria.

June went to work for Bemis Bag Co, Revena worked for Illinois Bell Telephone Co, Barbara entered Woodruff High School as a junior and Betty started her freshman year at Woodruff. Mom kept house while we went to school and worked part time jobs. We all gave Mom money to pay the bills.

On October 12, 1948, Revena and Alvis Reed were married. In June 1950 Barbara graduated from Woodruff High, the only one of the family to graduate from high school.

April 1950 Mom had gall bladder surgery.

January 13, 1951, Marion David married Betty Siders. Anna Elizabeth Browning was born July 10, 1951.

In 1951 Lee was recalled to active duty with the Air Force.

On November 17, 1951, June married Leland Williams. November 18, 1951, Betty and Bill Coughlin were married. March 8, 1952, Barbara was married to Loren Hemmele.

With all of us married Mom sold the house on Vine Street for $6,700.00. and went back to Galatia and bought a small house for $2,600.00.

Pamela Florene was born on March 13, 1952. Vada, Revena, Barbara, and Betty were all living in California. Mom spent three months in California.

Victoria Louise Browning was born on August 17, 1952, and one day later Cynthia Louise Coughlin was born, August 18, 1952.

In September 1952 when Mom moved back to Galatia, Junior had a motorcycle accident and broke his leg. He lived with Mom. In 1953 Betty and Bill Coughlin and Loren and Barbara Hemmele came back to live in Peoria.

On July 17, 1953, Deloris Jean Williams was born and one week later, July 25, 1953, Gregory Dale Hemmele was born. One month later Suzan Marie Coughlin was born on August 28, 1953.

October 1953 Grandpa Hall passed away, and one year later on October 24, 1954, Grandma Hall passed away.

In 1953 Mom moved back to Peoria to live with June and help her raise her two girls. Mom lived with June until 1990. June worked at Bemis Bag Co until she retired in 1984.

November 9, 1954, Linda Kay Browning was born. Walter Alan Reed was born on August 19, 1955. Mark Randall Hemmele was born on October 24, 1956, Marcie Ann Coughlin was born on July 27, 1957, Mary Denise Reed was born March 6, 1957, Benny Ray Hemmele was born December 10, 1960, Stephen Thomas Coughlin was born May 4, 1961.

On June 4, 1961, just one day after his 35th birthday, Junior passed away.

In 1957 Mom and June bought a house at 1518 NE Glendale Street in Peoria. Richard Lee Reed was born on November 15, 1965. Frederick David Browning was born on May 7, 1969. Byford and Alice moved to Arizona and California in 1960.

Lee was in the Air Force, and he and Coy and family moved to several different states until he retired from the service. After retirement he worked on the Air Force base in Texas. Lee developed lung cancer, and on August 19, 1972, he passed away in Wichita Falls, Texas.

About 1971 June located Vada living in a nursing home in Las Vegas, Nevada. Vada had multiple sclerosis. She had had it for several years but didn't want the family to know about it and feel sorry for her. Marion David and June flew to Las Vegas and brought her back to Peoria. June and Mom took care of her in their home for as long as they could. In 1974 Vada was taken to the Washington Nursing Home where she lived until December 31, 1976, when she passed away.

June's two daughters married and Mom and June continued to live on Glendale Street. Mom's family continued to grow. There were twenty-five grandchildren.

One by one Mom's brothers and sisters passed away, Wayne in 1986, Wilburn in 1988, Amy Bradley 1990, Loueva Wooden 1992.

Mom's son-in-law Bill Coughlin passed away in California, and in 1992 Granddaughter Suzan Marie Coughlin died in Chicago. Daughter-in-law Coy Browning passed away in 1992 in Missouri.

After June retired from Bemis she spent her free time making quilts, quilting by hand. They were all very beautiful. She made them for all of the family.

June took very good care of Mom and also was always there for the rest of the family in times of distress. In the summer of 1990 June found out she had cancer, with only a few months to live. It was a terrible shock and sadness for the whole family. The question now was where Mom would live. Mom was 91 years old and had never lived alone. She didn't want to live with any of the children. Her granddaughter Diana took over the responsibilities of moving her into a senior citizens apartment in Morton, Illinois.

On October 23, 1994, as I sat with Mom at Morton Health Care

At some later date after the summer of 1999 Barbara added the following text. It too was typed.

She was able to get around with the aid of a walker and take care of herself. She has arthritis of the knees and can't walk by herself. Almost a year after her diagnosis June passed away on June 21, 1991.

October 1991 Mom became sick and was in the hospital for a week. She went into the Morton Health Care Nursing Home to regain her strength. While there she decided she wanted to stay there instead of living in her apartment.

February 1997 I have finished writing Mom's life story as she told it to me. I hope that all of her descendants can read this and understand the hardships that Mom had raising nine children alone. Mom may not have gone to church often, but she would kneel beside her bed and pray at night for all her children.

As of this date Mom is still living at the nursing home. She is happy there, and the staff are very good to her. Her family visit her whenever they can. We are very fortunate to have Mom still with us. She is healthy and very alert, although she doesn't crochet afghans anymore. Many of her 25 grandchildren, 59 great-grandchildren, and 14 great-great-grandchildren have her afghans.

May 17, 1998, we had a family reunion to celebrate Mom's 100th birthday. We took her to my house in Washington. There were about 65 relatives gathered there. Her first great-great-granddaughter, Kearah Balylree Pratt, the great-granddaughter of Miriam Browning Dice, Mom's first granddaughter, was there from Missouri.

The local TV station came to interview Mom, and a reporter from the newspaper wrote an article about her. At the time of her 100th year she had 5 children, 24 grandchildren, 60 great-grandchildren, 17 great-great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great-great-granddaughter, as well as two sisters. All five of her surviving children were together to celebrate her birthday.

February 1999 they were putting Mom to bed at the nursing home and dropped her and fractured her ankle. Her right leg was put in a cast from the knee down. She said that was the first time in her life that she had broken any bones.

February23, 1999, Mom's sister Geneva Russell passed away at the age of 86. Leon and Janet [Russell] brought Geneva and Bonnie to visit Mom quite often and she loved talking with them and hearing any news from families down home.

November 1999 Charles Browning Jr, age 52, passed away in Arizona. He was cremated and his ashes were scattered on a mountain top in Arizona.

May 19, 1999, we had a birthday party at the nursing home for Mom's 101st birthday. Mom was quiet, but seemed to enjoy herself and seems to be in good health, but her memory is getting short term now.

Sunday, June 20, 1999, I visited Mom as usual. Lately she seemed very tired and cat napped a lot, but I would sit opposite her in her wheel chair and read the Harrisburg Daily Register. Leon [Russell] had the paper sent to her, which was very thoughtful.

I didn't realize that this would be my last visit with Mom. Mom knew that day she was going to heaven to be with our dad. At 5:40 PM she passed away very peacefully. She is buried in Raleigh Masonic Cemetery next to our dad and the rest of the family.

Bill and Mary Beth Ping, Bill's mother, was a cousin of Mom's, would visit Mom, and she told him she wanted him to preach her funeral.

Mom had written in a book that when she went to her heavenly home the first thing she wanted to do was see our dad and hold his hand forever.

We all miss Mom and think about her often, but as for myself I can see Mom and Dad sitting on a cloud holding hands forever.

CHARLES DEMENT

"Our Tennessee Pioneer"

by Samuel H. DeMent, M.D.

Charles Dement appears to be the first man of the aforementioned surname to enter the frontier lands of North Carolina beyond the mountains. The first record of his presence in these parts was in January 1792 in Sumner County, when he acquired 320 acres from James Wilson.[1]

History records that Charles Dement left Bertie County, North Carolina in November 1790 at which time he sold his acreage to Henry Clay Milburn.[2] The land was located on Wanton Swamp on the Cashie River and numbered 200 acres. He was living on the land at the time of sale.[3]

Charles Dement was an active juror in Bertie County, North Carolina from the period of November 1774 until 1779. He was not mentioned again in Bertie County until spring of 1783. Charles was probably the son of John Dement who first acquired a British Land Grant in November 1744. The Council at New Bern records his petition for 250 acres in Edgecombe County, North Carolina.[4] He is recorded in the Edgecombe County, North Carolina court minutes (Halifax County) and sold the acreage in 1751 to John Hardy.[5] The actual deed recorded the original land patent date as March 18, 1744. A witness to the land exchange was William Dement. In 1751 (September 6, 1751) John Dement acquired 400 acres from Daniel Highsmith on Cashie Swamp (Wanton Swamp) in the area now in the vicinity of Lewiston.[6] Two hundred acres of this land lying on the Northeast side of Cashie Swamp was sold to William Edwards on July 26, 1756.[7]

The William Dement mentioned previously also relocated to Bertie County, North Carolina where his name is recorded in 1769 and 1778 (August 28, 1778) at which time he purchased land from the estate of the late Benjamin Rogers.[8] A William Dement served in the American Revolution and his North Carolina pension land grant was assigned to Archibald Lytle.[9]

Charles Dement and his brother John Dement, Jr. acquired a 200 acre land grant in Brunswick County, North Carolina (Oxpen branch of the Little Shallote River) in 1771.[10] Both were listed in 1772 Brunswick County tax records. In 1773 the 200 acres were sold in two 100 acre tracts to William Gause.[11] On November 14, 1774, Charles Dement was deeded the remaining 250 acres that his father John Dement owned on Wanton Swamp.[12] Charles Dement signed an Oath of Allegiance to the independent government in either 1774 or 1777.[13] He apprenticed Mary Barfield in spinning and weaving in 1777.[14] In 1779 Charles Dement registered his cattle mark (crop and nick under right ear; half moon over left).[15] He was a member of the North Carolina Militia from Bertie County.[16] In 1780, 18 Militiamen and 112 draftees from Bertie County refused to march to Hillsborough, North Carolina until they had received bounty, since they were not supplied weapons.[17] The Militia rendezvoused with General Jethro Sumner's North Carolina Continentals in 1780. These patriots fought on the front line in several skirmishes and battles in the Southern campaign in 1781.[18] Charles Dement was noted in Bertie County Court Minutes again in February 1783 as a juror and again in 1785 as guardian of Sarah Thomas.[19] He was mentioned in 1780 as the husband of Selah Thomas in her father's last Will and Testament.[20] Charles Dement is not mentioned in Bertie County after October 18, 1790. He may have inherited land from John Dement (father or brother) in Burke County, North Carolina.[21] Charles was mentioned in tax records as owning 326 acres in Captain Adam's Company in 1790.[22] He sold several parcels over the ensuing years (presumably as an absentee landowner). On June 18, 1793, 120 acres was deeded from Charles Dement to a son David Dement.[23] David Dement deeded the 120 acres to Mary Dement (widow of John) in 1797.[24] Mary later sold the land in 1800.

On January 11, 1792, Charles Dement acquired 320 acres from James Wilson in Sumner County, North Carolina. He sold this land in 1815 to James Douglass.[25] On May 27, 1795, Charles Dement and William Standley of Sumner County acquired 1000 acres along the East Side of the Main Fork of the Stones River in Davidson County, North Carolina. The land was acquired from Noah (Aquilla) Sugg, a planter and minister.[26] [27] Charles Dement later received the entire 1000 acres through the court from William Standley. Charles Dement was active in the Sumner County Court records from 1792 until July 1803. He was recorded as a Justice of the Peace in 1800.[28] Sumner County court records are missing from 1804 until 1810. Charles Dement received a Rutherford County Land Grant (#4550) in the 1st District for 680 acres on November 5, 1812 from assignee William Lytle.[29] The land was situated on the East Side of the Stones River near Jefferson. In 1809 and 1814 he received 2 quarter sections of section #26 in the Mississippi Territory, Madison County (NW 1/4 and SW ¼)[30] and was a taxpayer in Madison County Alabama in 1815. He resided on the Madison County property at the time of his death in 1820. His son John Dement confirmed his burial site at Beaver Dam in his 1848 will.[31]

Charles Dement 's impact on Middle Tennessee is best reflected by his descendants. Two of his sons, Abner and Cader, were among the first residents in Rutherford County. In fact, they signed a historic petition which established Rutherford County from its parent counties, Davidson and Williamson.[32] The petition was dated August 10, 1803 and Rutherford County was organized on January 3, 1804. They probably lived on the 1000 acre plantation on the Main Fork of the Stones River, in the Smyrna/Old Jefferson area today. Cader Dement was a large landowner and planter who was given power of attorney by his father Charles on December 26, 1816. The land involved was the aforementioned 1000 acres plus the 680 acres on the East Fork of the Stones River.[33] Cader left many descendants in Middle Tennessee and served in the War of 1812.[34] Abner Dement acquired 3 land tracts totaling 816 acres from John Donaldson in 1817 in the Lacassas area of Rutherford County.[35] The original private residence stands on the Cainsville Pike and is registered as a National Historic Site.[36] Abner was killed by a slave, intestate, in 1825.[37] His minor heirs were William, John & David, who were reared by Elizabeth Dement, Abner 's widow.[38]

John, when of age, remained on the residence. His brother David DeMent settled nearby along Bradley's Creek. David died in 1907 having fathered 12 children by 2 wives.[39] He is buried behind his home, which still stands on Bradley's Creek Road. His great grandson, David Barton DeMent, Jr., was a prominent attorney in Murfreesboro. He also served in the State House of Representatives and Senate for 10 years with distinction. A World War II veteran he died at the age of 52. On January 26, 1965, a Senate Joint Resolution was adopted and later approved which recognized his numerous contributions.[40]

Yes, Charles Dement was a true Middle Tennessee pioneer and patriot, who immigrated to this area by covered wagon and flat boat from North Carolina several

In 1610, one hundred and seventy-one years before Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown in 1781, John Thomas and his wife Dorothy came to York County, Virginia, from the Bermuda Islands.[1]

The sons of John and Dorothy Thomas were William, Richard, Phillip, and John. They and their sons lived in York County and Isle of Wright [Wight] County, Virginia. Their son John moved to Bertie County, North Carolina.

John Thomas married Mary Lawrence, second. To them was born a son Joseph (ca 1680 – 1735), Bertie County, North Carolina.

Captain John Thomas and his wife lived in Bertie County, N.C., where his will was filed in 1735. Their children were Joseph, Michael, Luke, James, Jacob, Mary, Josiah, and Charity.[2]

James Thomas (1700 – 1780), son of Joseph and Alice, served in the Revolutionary War.[3] He married Sarah Barnes (ca 1699) [This date of marriage conflicts with his date of birth; alternatively, it could refer to Sarah's birth year.] in Bertie County, North Carolina. Their children were Ezekial, Luke, James, Selah, Lunell, Sarah, and Lydia.

Selah Thomas, daughter of James and Sarah Thomas, married Charles Dement of Bertie County, North Carolina. Their children were Charles, Cader, John, David, Abner, James, Mildred, and Clarisse. He was a full-blooded Frenchman who came to America from New Rochelle, France [The author probably means La Rochelle. Note that other records show that Charles was born in Bertie County, North Carolina.], when the Huguenots settled on Roanoke Island in the James River. [While the Huguenots did settle in Virginia, maps do not show an island on the James River with either this name or a variation.] His son, Dr John Jefferson Dement, states in his biography[4] that Charles and his two brothers served in the Revolutionary War.[5]

In 1798 Charles Dement and his family came to Sumner County, Tennessee, where they lived on a 1000 acre land grant. The land on which he lived became Rutherford County when it was formed from the Mero District, Davidson County, in 1803.

Sometime around 1808 the call of the Mississippi Territory took the "grand old Huguenot" to Madison County, Alabama. His will was filed there in 1820.[6] The date of his wife's death is unknown. [A*ccording to the Find a Grave website she died in 1799*.] As requested by Charles's son, Dr John Jefferson Dement, a cedar shed was built over his parents' graves. Trailing arbutus and remnants of cedar planks mark their graves in Beaver Dam Cemetery [The Find a Grave website identifies it as the Beaver Dam Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery], several miles south west of Huntsville, Alabama. Ironically, for one who owned many slaves, his church resounds on Sunday with the voices of people whose progenitors were Africans. [As of 2025 the Beaver Dam Primitive Baptist Church had an active website. Indeed, the congregation appears to be predominantly African American.]

Only two sons, Cader Dement and Abner Dement, of Charles and Selah Thomas Dement remained in Tennessee. Each son owned large plantations in Rutherford County, near Murfreesboro, Tennessee. Abner lived in Old Jefferson. [Old Jefferson Town is abandoned due to a flood control project of the early 1960s. It was located east of Smyrna inside a loop of the West Fork Stones River.] While he was sheriff of Rutherford County a Negro shot and killed him in 1821. [Other records, including the Find a Grave website, date his death at January 4, 1825.] The Negro was hanged on a tree close to the pike between Lacassas Murfreesboro and was left for days that others could learn the consequences of murder. Cader Dement, who served in the War of 1812 under Andrew Jackson, lived on Bushnell Creek, Rutherford County, between the east and west forks of Stones River. His large plantation was cultivated by many slaves.

It is only tradition, but the name "Cader" is quite odd and is worthy of mention. Cader's father Charles Dement loved the beautiful North Carolina section called "Arcadia," so he named his son Cader. The tradition is plausible.

Cader Dement (1777 – 1849) was married three times – Agnes Smith Douglas (1798); Mary Andrews (1821); and Frances Hall (1824). [The lineage of this Frances Hall is unknown.] His children named in his will[7] were James, Abraham, Edward, George W, Charlotte, John B, Charles, Elizabeth, Wilson Y, Susan, Joseph A, and David A. Cader and his second wife Mary Andrews had one son Joseph Andrew (1822 – 1909). Joseph A Dement lived just over the line of Rutherford County in Cannon County.

Joseph married, first Margaret Lacky, and second Jane Joanna McMillan of Gallatin, Tenn. She was the daughter of Rev Edward McMillan and Eliza Donnell of Gallatin and Carlinville, Ill. The children of Joseph and Jane Dement were David A (1855 – 1883); Albert; Wilson M – three died in infancy. Wilson M is still living on his father's farm at the age of one hundred and two years (1974). Like his mother, Jane McMillan Dement, who died at the age of ninety-eight years, he still loves the Democratic Party.

Joseph and Jane's son, David, who died at the age of twenty nine, married Mary Jane McElroy, daughter of Adam and Margaret Youree McElroy of Rutherford County.

The death of David Dement left Mary Jane with four children – Joseph (died young); Ora (died young); Maggie who married Will Brantley in Rutherford County; and Dell (1876 – 1967) who married Daniel Hill Sneed (1875 – 1936) of Rutherford County. Dr Daniel Hill Sneed was the youngest son of Dabney Hill Sneed and Eliza James. Dabney Sneed and his wife are buried at Trimbles [Trimble] Cemetery, near Milton, Tenn. Daniel Hill and Della are buried in Milton Cemetery. Others of their families are buried in Cooks Cemetery near Milton, Tenn.

To Della Dement Sneed and Daniel Hill Sneed, MD, were born seven children – Guy Wilson, Jodie, William David, Mary Gladys, Dan Jr, Della Louise, and Arthur Sharber (Bob). Early in their married life they gave land for an elementary school at Trimbles; [this name may or may not reference Trimble, Tennessee, which is about 200 miles west of Rutherford County] later, they gave their children college educations.

Jodie Sneed, daughter of Dan and Della Sneed of Rutherford, Coffee, and Bedford Counties, married Wilford Varner Helsley at Hiwassee College, Monroe County, Tenn, December 21, 1934. Wilford and Jodie Helsley have one daughter, Dianne Anthony, wife of David D Anthony of Jacksonville, Florida. Two grandchildren, Donna and David, complete my American progenitors long line of descendants this day February 9, 1974.

Following is the transcription of a typed document listing several members of the Puckett family. Who created this text and when they wrote it are unknown. I remember seeing copies passed around through the Hall family, but I don't remember anyone telling me the source. The original had many abbreviations, and those have been mostly removed; some punctuation has been altered to improve readability; and comments in brackets are mine. Otherwise, nothing is changed.

History of Wolf Creek Cemetery

Wolf Creek Cemetery is one of the oldest cemeteries in Saline County and is second in size only to the Harrisburg City Cemetery.

Wolf Creek is 80 acres and Harrisburg's is 120 acres.

Jon Poore of Colonial Terrace Funeral Home provided information on the cemetery in a program called "Secrets of Wolf Creek Cemetery" Thursday to visitors of Eldorado's Old City Hall Museum.

The Wolf Creek area, just west of Eldorado, had the first blockhouse in that part of the county, but there is controversy over its location.

"Some say it was at the flagpole and some say it was a half mile west on the way to Raleigh," Poore said.

There was a good reason for a blockhouse there. The Kaskaskia Trail ran through the cemetery. John O'Dell, pastor of Wolf Creek Primitive Baptist Church that is adjacent to the cemetery, said he believes the trail was what is now the blacktopped road in the cemetery. Part of the original trail is evident as a depression on a hill near the cannon and flag pole.

Kaskaskia Trail was important as it led from Shawneetown on the Ohio River to the salt works of Equality and on to the Mississippi River at Kaskaskia, then capital of the Illinois Territory. Pioneers, many of whom settled in Saline County, used the trail. The blockhouse was a place to go for protection from aggressors.

The cemetery's founders obtained the land Jan. 21, 1816, from Coleman Brown. The oldest recorded grave in the cemetery is for Thomas Brown who was buried in 1830.

The cemetery holds the remains of Eldorado's founding fathers with names such as Choisser, Henderson, Brown, Bramlet, Elder, Reed and Burnett.

There are more than 6,000 marked graves on record and more than 5,000 monuments.

In 1991 someone's Doberman pinscher was buried with a monument. In 1983, 25 feet from the back of the church, Dixie, the 59-year-old parrot of Ralph and Doris Mathias was buried in the cemetery with a monument.

Poore said on average 46 people a year are buried in the cemetery.

Currently there are about 200 lots available in the cemetery with eight graves per lot. Lots are $600 each. Half lots of four graves are $400. Lots are sold at Eldorado City Hall.
